

"I'm interested in anything about revolt, disorder, chaos, especially activity that appears to have no meaning.

It seems to me to be the road toward freedom."

King Ink

Mario Barth has led an amazing life of tattooing, but nothing compares to his newest and largest venture yet. King Ink - Mario Barth at the Mirage in Las Vegas is the ultimate experience for the tattoo enthusiast looking for fun or the casual observer who just wants to come in for a drink and a chance to witness history in the making. Beautifully themed in “royalty meets rock and roll” style, it is a premier destination spot in Las Vegas.

The Lifestyle

As Mario would put it, “tattoo artists work hard and play hard,” and so he has given them a place to do both. As the first of its kind, King Ink combines Las Vegas night-life with tattooing in one location. King Ink even offers its own specials on industry night, called “Inked Out Tuesdays” where tattoo artists are given the VIP treatment with drink specials and a chance to chill with their fellow artists.

Couture

Even if you're not here to get a tattoo, by day King Ink becomes a high end fashion and jewelry retailer. Real custom made jewelry, adorned with metal, skulls and excellent gems are on display at all times. The clothing items available make it easy for patrons to show off their true colors in a fashionable and unique way with pieces you won't find anywhere else in the world.

One Part Bar & Lounge, One Part Tattoo Studio

King Ink is an entirely new concept in Las Vegas entertainment - a collision of two worlds that will please anyone looking for just about any kind of good time. From a relaxing yet upbeat patio, to the intensity of the club-style experience inside, all the way back to the time-honored tradition of tattooing in the booths to commemorate a great Las Vegas trip.

The spacious bar room is lined with custom jewelry, kiosks that allow you to browse for tattoo ideas and history, as well as more info about Mario Barth and King Ink.

With two one of a kind tattoo chairs, a piercing station, full bar, DJ, lounge, and outdoor patio, King Ink is many experiences rolled into one indescribable venue. You have to see it to believe it!

Corporate Event Planning and Food Services

No matter the size of your event, King Ink can customize and accommodate your needs.

Whether it be food catering, staging, furnishings, or multimedia accommodations like slideshows, projectors, or sound equipment, we will help make your event exactly what you envision.

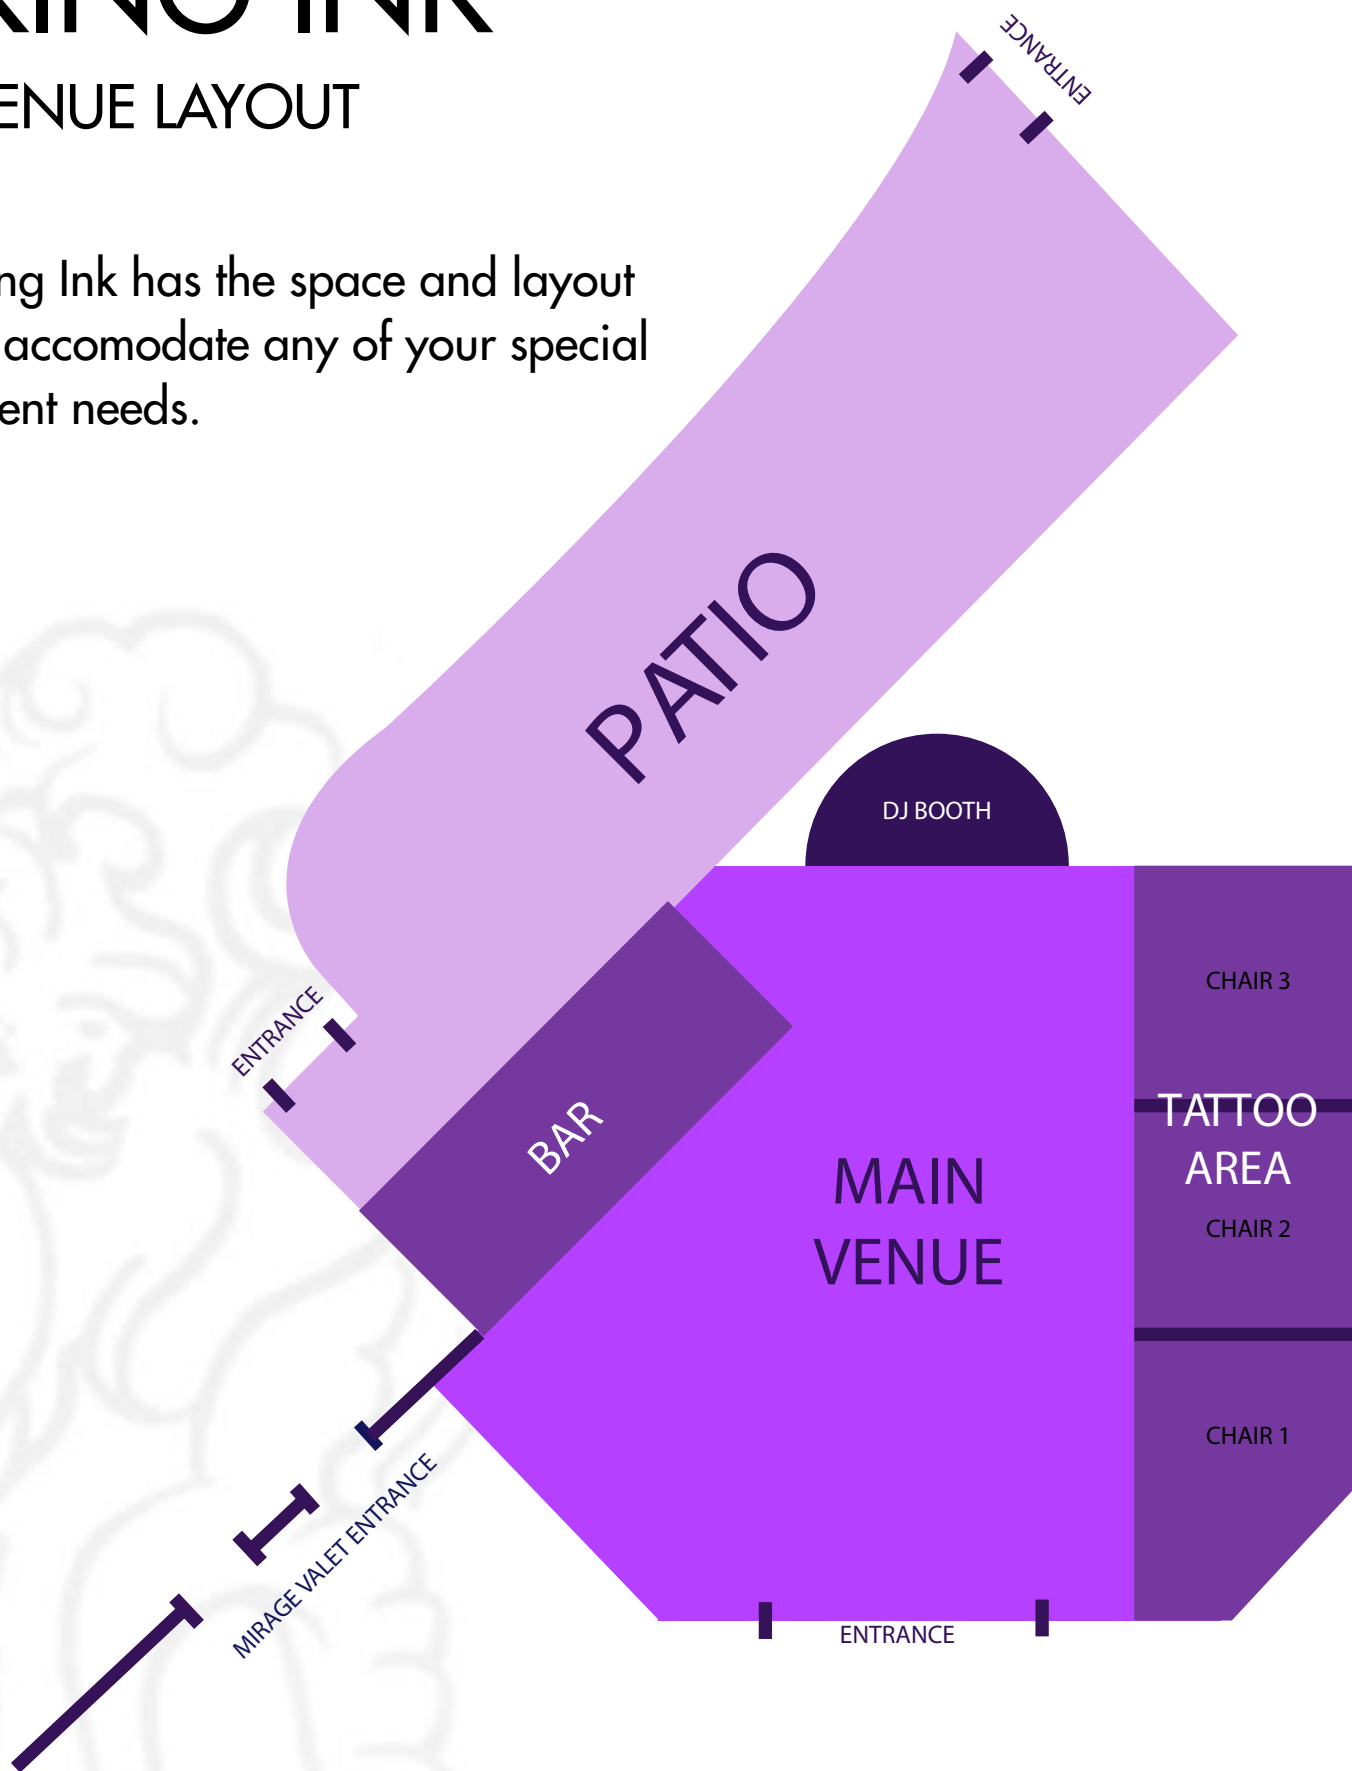

If your event lends itself to entertainment in the form of tattooing, magician performances, or other types of entertainment, we are able to accommodate those requests as well, with in-house artists and performers and any outsourcing you may require.

About Mario Barth

Twenty eight years ago in Western Europe, becoming a tattoo artist took determination and bravado, especially for Mario Barth. Growing up in Austria, where tattooing was not just frowned upon but completely illegal, he came up through the underground.

Riding motorcycles and hanging out with a rough bunch, he learned the secrets of the trade in the dark shadows of the earth, every piece of knowledge earned through blood, sweat, and courage.

Despite the many obstacles and dangers presented, Mario devoted himself to learning how to tattoo; no matter the risk. Little did he know that one day his work (28 years tattooing with 15 of them spent on the hard road) would become the center of his very own international enterprise.

After winning over 200 awards in tattooing all over the world, Mario Barth is without a doubt one of the most highly regarded tattoo artists of all time.

King Ink Tattooing

As a venue that is the first of its kind, Mario Barth did not pull any punches when it came to selecting the artists to work in his brand new state of the art studio.

The artists at King Ink are hand selected by Barth to ensure the highest level of quality possible. At King Ink, you can have a tattoo customized in any style. From traditional Asian-inspired pieces to black and white portraits, anything is possible.

You can also pick the method in which you receive your tattoo, from traditional Japanese hand-poking method called “tebori” all the way to the Samoan “tatau” method and of course the modern tattoo machine.

Like most people that achieve great things with their work, Mario Barth's presence in the tattoo community is unprecedented. This unique position has given him opportunities to create businesses that surpass the gold-standard of tattooing and entertainment.

King Ink at the Mirage brings new energy to the tattoo culture and the Las Vegas experience. Mario Barth aspires to take the tattoo culture and earn its respect from the same people who have spent years persecuting it; never backing down or taking "no" for an answer. He does this all in the name of tattooing.
